

Teaching the Child You Have
Not the child you want them to be...

HOW DO MY KIDS LEARN:

What is their learning style?

What is their personality?

What type of curriculum works the best for them?

HOW DO I TEACH?

Is it fitting?

What can I change?

What do I need to power through?

"Everybody is a genius. But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing that it is stupid." -Albert Einstein

UNDERSTANDING WHO THEY ARE:

Personality, love language, quirks:

What fascinates/interests them?

What method of learning works best for them?

4 QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF:

1. Am I comparing my child or placing expectations on them that they cannot meet?
2. What is currently working and what isn't working?
3. How can I capitalize on their interests?
4. How can I tweak my approach or style to meet my child's needs?
